featured wine

Sip into summer wine extravaganza

2020	bonny doon 'vin gris de cigare' rosé central coast california usa	16.5 77
------	---	---------

this extraordinary californian winery is best described as an innovative attempt to recreate & popularise rhone grapes in california. a great story is followed with the label of 'vin de cigare', named after the law in 1954 in southern rhone, where the local council was quite perturbed that flying saucers or 'flying cigars' might damage the vineyards when landing. so, that prohibited the landing of flying objects in their vineyards.

in this blend, grenache is the one that dominates. full of aromas of wild strawberry, peach, guava & rhubarb. the wine has a wonderful creaminess & length on the palate.

2022	pacha mama organic touriga nacional (chilled) pyrenees vic	16.5 77

named after pacha mama: incan goddess who brings fruit to the vine & joy to the world, this small victorian winery stays strong with their values: innovation, sustainability, authenticity, community, humility & fun. touriga nacional is a portuguese grape variety traditionally grown for the production of port.

this medium bodied red has a beautiful intensity and fruit purity with heady aromas of violets and perfume, blackberries, blueberries and plums fill out the nose and palate. grippy tannins providing support and length. sourced from the landsborough vineyard in the heart of the victorian pyrenees. a cool climate, organic and bio-dynamically farmed vineyard vineyard planted in 2009 by m.chapoutier.
